

Who is Industrial Areas Foundation?

“The IAF is non-ideological and strictly non-partisan, but proudly, publicly, and persistently political”. This is a quote directly from their Website. They recruit, identify, develop and train leaders to be part of a radical organization. I say Radical because I quote “The IAF is a radical organization in this specific sense” also from the IAF Website. They say they want to overcome obstacles that are placed in our way such as issues about reducing crime, improve and start new schools, raise wages etc. However they don’t do anything to help with those issues. They focus on training people, teaching them how to attain power and thus having more political support and clout through membership behind the IAF name.

The Industrial Areas Foundation say they are openly radical and continue to practice what their Founding Fathers preached i.e. Saul Alinski Founder and successor Edward T. Chambers. Saul Alinski, was a self proclaimed Radical and political activist. In his book “Rules for Radicals” Alinski begins with an unusual tribute: “From all our legends, mythology, and history (and who is to know where mythology leaves off and history begins – or which is which), the first radical known to man who rebelled against the establishment and did it so effectively that he at least won his own kingdom – Lucifer.”
